Dear USPTO:

Earlier today we mailed, via U.S. Post Office first class mail, a Preliminary Amendment that cited the Application No. as 10/652,314, throughout the entire package.

This Application No. is incorrect. The Preliminary Amendment should have cited the Application No. as 10/652,814.

Please find enclosed a copy of the Preliminary Amendment, Patent Application Fee Determination, Fee Transmittal, and Transmittal Form, each corrected to reflect the "814" Application No. This "814" package supersedes the "314" version, in its 27-page entirety. We respectfully request the "314" package be discarded in favor of the corrected and enclosed "814" package.

Please note the $50 check for the extra claims of the Preliminary Amendment had been attached to the "314" package and should be used for the "814" package herein. For ease of reference, we are also including a copy of the check (carbon) that was sent with the "314" package. We have also enclosed another stamped and self-addressed post card.

We sincerely apologize for this error. Please contact me at the phone number below if I may be of further assistance.

Thank you.
